

NORTH CENTRAL WEED SCIENCE SOCIETY STUDENT TRAVEL AWARD

The North Central Weed Science Society is offering up to six (6) Travel Awards to qualifying graduate students for their first attendance at the NCWSS annual meeting. The society reserves the right to increase the number of Travel Awards based on additional financial support from a corporate sponsor. These scholarships will provide up to $500 per student plus a complementary registration fee for the annual meeting. Students and/or their graduate advisor are responsible for all remaining costs incurred to attend the NCWSS annual meeting, including travel and meals. This travel grant program is intended to encourage graduate student involvement in the NCWSS annual meeting while students are in the early portion of their graduate program.

Eligibility of Nominees

Nominees must have not yet attended a NCWSS annual meeting. Graduate and Undergraduate students may apply for the Travel Award. Graduate Students not in traditional weed science graduate programs are also encouraged to apply for these travel grants. Applicant must be a student in good standing from an accredited institution with an interest in weed science and a desire to become a contributing member of the NCWSS annual meeting. The applicant must be willing to work at the NCWSS annual meeting in a responsible and professional manner as directed. Work responsibilities may include assisting with session operations, supporting the registration desk, poster session set-up or teardown, or other related duties involved in the operations of the NCWSS annual meeting.
